LABOR BODY CALLS ON WILSON TO SEIZE COLORADO MINES

C. F. of L. Want Peaceful Methods, But Are Ready for the Other Way If It Comes—Blame Rockefellers for Ludlow Massacre.

An open war like the one now on in Colorado will reach Chicago unless Chicago newspapers and capitalists change their tactics.

John H. Walker, president of the Illinois State Federation of Labor and president of the Illinois United Mine Workers, gave this as his opinion in a speech yesterday before the delegates of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

He said labor is trying to get away from violence, but it is forced on by greedy employers. He declared:

"We want peaceful methods. But if they want the other way, and insist on it, then, by God, we'll give 'em that way."

He named the Chicago Tribune as "coming in the guise of a purveyor of news to poison the mind of the public" on the Colorado situation.

After Walker's speech, John Fitzpatrick, president of the C., F. of L., read resolutions naming the two Rockefellers, father and son, as connected with the murder and burning
